

THE 3RD BLACK HEALTH MATTERS SUMMIT

YOUR HEALTH! What could be more important?

The 3rd Black Health Matters Summit is dedicated to educating, energizing, and empowering African American families to embrace self-care.

Dr. Carol Brown
Board-certified
Gynecologic Oncologist

Karen Eubanks Jackson
Founder/CEO of Sisters
Network® Inc.

Dr. Icilma Fergus
Director of Cardiovascular Disparities

Brenda Blackmon
Host, Emmy Award Winning
News Anchor and Lupus
Advocate

Dr. Kecia Gathier
Director, Perinatal
Services/Maternal
Fetal Medicine

Dr. Michael T. McRae
Director Of Mental Health Strategy

Dr. Lewis Kampel
Director, Ralph Lauren
Center for Cancer Care
and Prevention

Dr. Matthew Maurer
Director of Clinical Cardiovascular Research
Laboratory

The topics are:

- Breast Cancer
- Clinical Trials/Research Study Participation
- Fibroids/Endometriosis/Reproductive Health
- Hereditary ATTR amyloidosis
- Heart Disease
- Lupus
- Mental Health
- Sickle Cell
- Prostate Cancer

Date: Saturday, March 2, 2019 with registration at 9:30 am.

The program is from 10:00 am to 4:00 pm at Riverside Church, 91 Claremont Avenue, NYC

Admission is Free! A light breakfast and lunch will be served. Door prizes included.

Eventbrite: <https://3rdblackhealthmatterssummit.eventbrite.com> or email, info@blackhealthmatters.com or call 973-333-9541

PRESENTING SPONSORS

SUPPORTERS

COMMUNITY

